

HALTS HIGHWAY ROBBERY TRIAL

Attorney Desmond, Counsel For Accused, Too Sick To Appear In Superior Court—New London Man Found His Wife Had Another Husband—Three Prisoners Given Jail Sentence—Lebanon Woman Liberated.

Continuance of the Lebanon highway robbery case, in which the accused are John and Thomas McGrath and Timothy Dixon, was interrupted in the superior court here on Friday morning by the illness of Attorney J. Desmond, counsel for the accused. When court opened, it was reported that the attorney was sick in bed at his home, and Dr. R. W. Kimball informed Judge Case that he had been to see Mr. Desmond twice and that he was improving, with indications that he would be able to be in court Tuesday.

The jury was then excused until Tuesday with a warning not to talk about the case outside or visit the scene of the trouble.

Prosecuting Attorney Hull then took up the case of Ellen P. Carey of Lebanon, who was arrested on June 17 for keeping a disorderly house in Lebanon. Major Hull told the court that the woman had been keeping house for a man who at this time of court had been put on probation. She was separated from her husband and was promised to leave Lebanon and to stay out of town. Attorney Douglas also made a plea for her and Judge Case coincided with the two lawyers in his judgment of the case and ordered the woman liberated.

Frank Briggs of Bayonet street, New London, a blacksmith, was charged with adultery with Mrs. Mary Briggs, alias Mary Demalia. He was given one year in jail and was then placed

In charge of County Probation Officer Richard W. Mansfield, sentence being suspended.

Briggs said that he married the woman some time ago, believing her to be a widow. Recently her first husband, to whom she had been married in Faya six years ago, appeared in this country, and this week the man and woman were arrested on bench warrants, Briggs charged with adultery and the woman with bigamy.

Briggs said in court that he was willing to live with the woman and support and care for her. In view of the circumstances, Judge Case allowed probation.

The case against the woman was continued.

John Smith of Providence was sentenced to three months in jail for stealing instruments from the office of Dr. Cassidy in Norwich, Sept. 12, picked guilty and said that drink was the cause of his trouble.

George J. Arzamas of North Stonington was given three months in jail for wife beating. He has been in jail three months awaiting trial on the same charge. He has a wife and seven children. It was shown that the trouble grew out of the disputed habits of the accused, who has taken the Keeley cure without good effect.

Joseph LaFlamme of Norwich, who had pleaded not guilty to bestial conduct, pleaded guilty to breach of the peace, to which the complaint was changed. He was given one year in jail.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

E. A. Tracy and Frank H. Allen to Speak at County Meeting in New London.

The programme for the annual meeting of the New London County Historical society is ready. The meeting is to be held at New London in the Shaw mansion, Wednesday, September 18. The programme is:

1. P. M.—Business meeting with election of officers.

2. P. M.—Meeting open to public, with addresses by Edwin A. Tracy and Frank H. Allen, both of Norwich.

WEDDING.

Barbour—Brydon.

At 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon Miss Nellie A. Brydon and James Barbour were united in marriage by Rev. Charles H. Ricketts at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Duff, No. 215 Rockwell street. The wedding was of a quiet nature, only intimate friends being present. The house was attractively decorated with asters, dahlias and ferns. Attending the bridal couple were Mr. and Mrs. Duff, the latter gowned in white marquisette. The bride was prettily gowned in white lace over satin and carried a bouquet of white asters. There was a wedding supper following the ceremony.

After a honeymoon tour Mr. and Mrs. Barbour will reside in New Canaan, Conn., where the groom has accepted a position as farm superintendent. He has been employed in a similar capacity for the past four years at Shelter Island. The bride formerly resided in this city, but of late has made her home in New London.

William Warren Brown, the artist and author, died Thursday at his home in Waterford after an illness of about four months. Mr. Brown leaves a widow and two children.
